RACING AT IVY CITY.

WARNING TO SUSPECTED HORSE OWNERS.

SAN HARPER, BELLA B., CHAMPAGNE CHARLIE, BRONZOMARTE AND GLORY FIRST OVER THE LINE.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Several horse-owners who have been under suspicion for a long time were informed to-day by a high official of the National Jockey were being carefully watched and warned not to attempt any crooked business at Ivy . Too many horses, they were told, were being for work, or to get weight off. It is extremely fortunate for these fellows that none of them own Senorita. No youngster ever gave a more disgrace-ful exhibition of the "slowe" than this high-class filly did in the race for the Capitol Stakes. Senorita was second choice in the betting, and large handfulof bills were invested on her. Champagne Charlie won with ease, after waiting on the leaders until they Madstone was beaten ntered the homestretch. at the end of the first half-mile, Hayward giving little assistance in any part of the race and pulling up in disgust a furlong from the line. Goodale rode Reporter without spurs, and as the colt is sluggish he would not be persuaded to leave his stable Blue Wing, who, with Hayward up, Was. hopelessly beaten before reaching the home treet.

Taylor brought Sam Harper home in front, rights hard ing frequency north of the 40th parallel are mostly to beat Cartoon, who was favored with a length the best of a poor start. The Dwyers were doubtful of Bella B. and did not back her, but put a large commission on Biggonet for a place. Bella B won in a Biggonet was last from start to finish. "Father Bill" Daly took the fourth and fifth races runaway style with Bronzomarte and Glery. Details are given below:

The flag fell on an excellent start. Holiday ran into the lead immediately and made the running to the head of the streigh, where she threw up the sponge. Seymour and Tom Vaughan alternated in second place up to this point, with Madstone third and Champagne Charlie Senorita departed for the rear before she had taken a dozen strides, and gave a most disgraceful exhibition of the "slows." Tom Vaughan dropped out with Holiday at the head of the homestretch and Madstone moved into second place alongside of Seymour, who held his bwn sgainst all opposition until Champagne Charlie came up and took a commanding lead which he held to the end, winning a good roce by a leagth. Seymour three lengths before Holiday. Hayward pulled up when he found himself beaten.

Nicholas F. Palmer, Joseph S. Stout and Edwin H. Weatherbee. Jackson S. Schultz and James M. Constable, on behalf of a special committee appointed to consider the question of a suitable site for the proposed new Appraisers' office, reported that they considered that the new buildings should be on the river front, near the landing places of the transatiantic steamers and convenient for importers. The committee did not consider the question of the removal of the Custom House, considering that it is now well placed. A long discussion of the report ensued, and the matter was laid over until the next regular meeting. A resolution was offered by G. Waldo Smith urging the Legislature to repeal all laws imposing penalties for taking interest in excess of 6 per cent, on the ground that the present usury laws are harsh upon the commercial community. The resolution was referred to the Committee on National Trade. MILES.

DR. WILDER'S STRONG REASONS FOR BEING A REPUBLICAN.

Sir: So many members of the Faculty of this University are reported to intend voting with the Democrats this fall, that an opposite avowal may not be out of place from one who, at all other times a Republican, at least asserted his independence by voting for Horace Greeley in 1872. Unlike (he has reason to think) some of his colleagues, he regularly reads both sides, as presented in The Tribune and settle the Tariff question, which is, perhaps, in the view of some, tantamount to a confession of imbecility; but, considering the records of the two great parties, the faithfulnes with which promises have been kept, and the character and abilities the leaders, he would rather intrust the working-out of the problems at issue to the Republican party, even could it be shown that the other organizations had a direct revelation of abstract truth respecting Temperance and Tariff Reform.

Excepting such as are absolutely sure that Free powder, Lucius extracts and the denies his family ordinary comforts; Trade is best for this country, those quondam Read that he has threatened to smash the furniture and publicans who vote next week otherwise than for the uccess of their old party will put themselves on record as unduly repelled by a few things which they do not like, and as literally carried away by a he has always treated his wife and children liberally; still less number of commendable things from a totally unexpected quarter. Truly there would seem to be more joy among the Mugwumps over a single sign to a theatre or gambled. He clinenes this record of of Democratic wisdom, virtue and public spirit than good behavior by adding that for twenty years he over the ninety-and-nine manifestations thereof

> Personal independence may be a sacred right, and majorities are often in the wrong; but are there not ions when, for the sake of the general good, the highest moral force is exerted, not in "kicking" but restraining one's inclination to "kick"?

The Mugwumps and Prohibitionists are clearly ntitled to criticise the words and deeds of Republicans entitled to criticise the words and deeds of Republicans, and probably their criticisms are often merited; but voting is another thing, especially when a single ballot may continue the rule of a party with which, as a whole, their alliance constitutes an almost ludicrous incongruity.

Undoubtedly many Republicans are unpatriotic and vicious; but were it possible to bring together from the whole country all the Anglomaniacs and disunion sympathizers, all the repeaters, buildozers and scoffers at Civil Service improvement, all puglists and cock and dog fighters, all keepers and frequenters of gambling-houses, brothels and liquor-saloons, will anyone deny that out of each and every one of those assemblages a vast majority would be found shouting for "Cleveland and Reform"?

A FLAG FOR EACH PARADER ON SATURDAY. To the Editor of the Tribune. Fifty thousand or more Republicans will go shouting and singing up Broadway next Saturday.

If the different clubs will put a flag in the hands of each man parading the effect will be magnificent. idea was adopted to-day by one organization that will muster 2,500 men. Paper musiin flags, 18x12 inches. on rods four and one half feet long, cost 7 or 8 cents each. A column of 50,000 men equipped with American flags would be indescribably and overwhelm ingly grand.

GET OUT THE FLAGS FOR SATURDAY!

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Urge upon all Republican business men the windows on Saturday next as many American flags, large or small, as possible. The flag is distinctly the Republican emblem and its liberal display on the day of the great parade will not only show the political preference of the great mass of business men, but will add greatly to the enthusiam of the occasion.

An appeal to this effect would, I am sure, be gladly responded to by thousands of business men throughout the city. Yours truly,

THE PRESIDENT'S PARTISAN ACTIVITY!

To the Editor of The Trib une. Sir: A gentleman in this building, who has been ng Cleveland man, told me this morning that he had now concluded to vote for Harrison, mainly ecause of the President's participation in the review of the partisan parade on Saturday last. He con the true Civil Service idea. In 1887 the citizens of this town objected because there was a letter written by town objected because there was a letter written by the President to affect an election, in which the Presicent, as President, had no right to interfere. And now this same President is in tears because Lord Sackyllic wrote a letter in an election in which he,
West, had no right to interfere. It begins to look as if Cleveland's luck was now equal to his ability, and that justice will be done. ABRAHAM GRUBER,
No. 261 Broadway, Now-York, Oct. 29, 1888.

IS THERE SUCH A CLUB! To the Editor of The Tribune:

Sir: Do you know of an organized club of veterans who voted for W. H. Harrison in 1840-a real old log cabin club? Captain Rufus Small, seventy-four ars old, wants to join such a club rade on November 3. New-York, Oct. 22, 1888.

VOLUNTEERS FOR ELECTION DAY WORK.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: The one great want of the Republican organication of this city has been the lack of earnest volunteer workers at the polls. There is a deep and growing interest showing itself among both Republicans and Protection Democrats upon this subject, and an intense desire to correct it. Several persons unonnected with the clubs have declared to me that on their own responsibility they will work at the pells and give that day to the party. It only needs a brainy man to head and organize the movement to make it a great success. If the clubs of the Assembly districts would appoint conference committees, to form a union committee, which would open enrolling places for volunteer workers, and assign them to districts with which they a corps of citizens could be gathered together before Election Day. There is too much at stake in the a corps of citizens could be gathered together before Election Day. There is too much at stake in this election to the business of the country, and for the bread and butter of the masses, to neglect any way of helping the party to victory. The Protection boys have shown in this campaign that they have the grit and endurance to face a cyclone, if necessary. Give them a leader and an organization that they have confidence in, and they will meet the Democratic heeler on his hitherto peculiar "stamping ground," and go him one better.

He says his farmer neighbors on both sides of him voted for Cleveland in 1884, but cannot and will not support "free woo!" this year. My acquaintance is not large and if there is the same feeling all over Western New-York as among my acquaintance, we will bury Cleveland's majority in New-York City and Queens and Kings Counties twenty feet deep.

Sir: Our merchants of New England descent have usually taken advantage of non-business days to visit relatives at the old homesteads. To the Editor of The Tribunt. Sir: I desire to give some reasons why Americans veteran soldiers, Irishmen and their sons, should not vote for Abram S. Hewitt. I hear the expres among a certain class, "I like Hewitt for his Americanism." This refers to his autocratic English re-fusal to permit the Irish and other flags to be holsted on certain days. Yet when those flags were found on all the battlefields of this country side by side with ours, I would ask where was the flag of his father, the English flag? It was always on the side that was fighting against this country, just where it is It is Mr. Hewitt's Englishism and his Know-Nothingism that people are admiring without knowing it. Mayor's Office, New-York, May 8, 1836.

Edward Day, esq., 31 Church-st., N. Y.

Sir: I acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst. for the purpose of dissenting from the statements you make in regard to General Fitz-John Porter. He was a loyal soldler, a faithful critzen, and has discharged all his duties to his country and to the city with fidelity and credit. I do not expect to reappoint him to office; but I will not permit his character to be attacked, either through ignorance or prejudice, without putting in my protest against its injustice. Yours respectfully, Yours respectfully, ABRAM'S. HEWITT, Mayor. Let the people take Mr. Hewitt at his word. He says that Colonel Erhardt will make as good a Mayor as himself. Colonel Erhardt has been tried and not found wanting. The battlefields of the Union attest his loyalty. In civil positions he has been an honor to the city and to the Nation. Let us make him Mayor in place of the man who calls himself a Fellow-Republicans, if you had not thrown your votes away two years ago Theodore Ro would now be Mayor. Don't repeat that folly by voting against a true and tried American, Colonel Erhardt. No. 31 Church-st., New-York, October 25, 1888.

CHALLENGING "THE WORLD'S" ESTIMATE. To the Editor of The Iribune.

Sir: In "The New-York World" of October 30 is an estimate of the Republican and Democratic majorities in the different counties of New-York State. We will wager $250 to $200 that we can name seven counties outside of New-York and Kings, mentioned in the list, that will give in the aggregate 5,000 plurality for Harrison and Morton more than is given in "The World's" table; and $100 even that the said seven counties will give 6,000 more than the plurality named in "The World's" tables. We don't believe in betting, but we simply do this to back up our judgment against "The World's" statement. We will send the money to The New-York Tribune office, with the names of the counties sealed up in an envelope, to be opened the morning after election. The same proportionate gains as above-mentioned, throughout the State, will give Harrison and Morton about 110,000 plurality to the Har-lem Bridge. H. G. BURLEIGH & BRO. Whitehall, N. Y., Nov. 1, 1888.

LOOK OUT WHOM YOU PAIR WITH! To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Would it not be well to call attention to the danger of "pairing"? I have heard of a case where a Democrat, Intending to change his residence before Election Day, has paired with a Republican who would not otherwise lose his vote. New-York, Oct. 25, 1888.

LIQUOR DEALERS MAKE A FINAL APPEAL. HILL, THEIR CHAMPION, MUST BE ELECTED, THEY SAY, AND NO EXCUSE WILL

BE TAKEN.

If the Republicans needed any proof that the liquor lealers of this city have combined to raise large sums of money with the avowed purpose of re-electing their friend, Governor Hill, it is furnished by a circular now in the possession of The Tribune, which was sent by mail to a member of the Liquor Dealers' Association, Here it is:

Dear Sir: I am authorized by resolution to instruct Friday, November 2, to lay out a plan of action for election day, and to prepare to man every polling-place in your district on election morning in the interest of Governor Hill. This order is imperative, and no excuse will be taken for want of time or other reasons. You are thoroughly aware of the necessity of carrying out this resolution, and it is expected you will not fail.

THE THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION. Washington, Nov. 1 .- The following Thanksgiving proclamation was issued to-day by the President; Constant thanksgiving and gratitude are due from the American people to Almighty God, for His goodness and nercy which have followed them since the day He made them a Nation and vouchsafed to them a free government. He has warned us of our dependence upon His forbeat-ance, and has taught us that obedience to His holy law is the price of a continuance of His precious gifts.

In acknowledgment of all that God has done for us as a Nation, and to the end that on an appointed day the united prayers and praise of a grateful country may reach the Throne of Grace, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November, instant, as a day of thankegiving and prayer, to be kept and ob-served throughout the land.

Let us give thanks for peace and for social order and contentment within our borders, and for our advancement in all that adds to national greatness.

And mindful of the afflictive dispensation with which a portion of our land has been visited, let us, while we humble ourselves before the power of God, acknowledge His mercy in setting bounds to the deadly march of pestilence, and let our hearts be chastened by sympathy with our fellow-countrymen who have succeed and who

ON WHAT WAS NONE OF HIS BUSINESS.

To the British Minister, Washington, D. C .: Sir: The gravity of the political situation here and the duties of those voters who are of English birth but still consider England the mother land constitute the apology I hereby offer for intruding for information. Mr. Cleveland's message to Congress on the Fishery question justly excites our alarm and compels us to seek further knowledge before finally casting our votes seek further knowledge before finally casting our votes for him as we had intended to do. Many English citizens have for years refrained from being naturalized, as they thought no good would accrue from the act, but Mr. Cleveland's Administration has been so favorable and friendly toward England, so kind in not enforcing the Retallatory act passed by Congress, so sound on the free-trade question and so hostile to the dynamite school of Ireland, that by the hundreds—yes, by the thousands—they have become naturalized for the express purpose of helping to elect him over again. sider their own and their country's best friend.

I am one of these unfortunates with a right to vote for President in November. I am unable to under-stand for whom I shall cast my ballot, when but one month ago I was sure Mr. Cleveland was the men-IF CLEVELAND WAS PURSUING A NEW POLICY TOWARD CANADA, TEMPORARILY ONLY AND FOR THE SAKE OF OBTAINING POPULARITY AND CONTINUATION OF HIS OFFICE FOUR YEARS MORE, BUT INTENDS TO CEASE HIS POLICE. WHEN HIS RE-ELECTION IS SECURED IN NOVEM-BER AND AGAIN FAVOR ENGLAND'S INTEREST. BUT GO FORWARD AND VOTE FOR HIM.

I know of no one better able to direct me, sir, and I most respectfully ask your advice in the matter. I will further add that the two men, Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Harrison, are very evenly matched and a few votes may elect either one. Mr. Harrison is a high-tariff man, a believer on the American side of all questions and undoubtedly an enemy to British interests generally. This State is equally divided between the parties, and a mere handful of our naturalized countrymen can turn it either way. When it is rememred that a small State (Colorado) defeated Mr. Tilden in 1876 and elected Hayes, the Republican, the importance of California is at once apparent to all. As you are at the fountain head of knowledge on the question, and KNOW WHETHER MR. CLEVE-LAND'S PRESENT POLICY IS TEMPORARY ONLY, AND WHETHER HE WILL, AS SOON AS HE SE-CURES ANOTHER TERM OF FOUR YEARS IN THE PRESIDENCY, SUSPEND IT FOR ONE OF FRIEND-SHIP AND FREE TRADE, I apply to you privately. and confidentially for information, which shall in turn be treated as entirely secret. Such information would land enable me, on my own responsibility, to assure many of our countrymen that THEY WOULD DO ENGLAND A SERVICE BY VOTING FOR CLEVE LAND AND AGAINST THE REPUBLICAN SYSTEM OF TARIFF. As I before observed, we know not what to do, but look for more light on a mysterious subject, which the sooner it comes will better serve true Englishmen in casting their votes. Yours, very respectfully. CHARLES F. MURCHISON.

BUT JOHN BULL'S MOUTHPIECE

REPLIES WITH AMAZING FRANKNESS.

(Private.) Beverly, Mass.,

Sept. 13, 1888. Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th inst., and beg to say that I fully appreciate the difficulty in which you find yourself in casting your vote. You are probably aware that any political party which openly favored the mother country at the present moment would lose popularity, and that the party in power is fully aware of this fact. The party, however, is, I believe, still desirous of maintaining friendly relations with Great Britain, and is still as desirous of settling all questions with Canada, which have been unfortunately reopened since the retraction of the treaty by the Republican majority in the Senate, and by the President's message, to which you allude. All allowances must, therefore, be made for the election thus created. It is, however, impossible to predict the course which President Cleveland may pursue in the matter of retalistion, should be be elected; but there is every reason to believe that, while upholding the position he has taken, he will manifest a spirit of conciliation in dealing with the question involved in his message. I enclose an article from "The New-York Times" of August 22,

Yours faithfully L. S. SACKVILLE WEST. THAT LETTER TO MURCHISON IS NOT OFFSET.

From The Boston Journal.

It is quite obvious that this act of the President does not diminish in the least the significance of the Sackville letter. The damaging quality of that letter was the ingenuous and evidently sincere indorsement which it gave to the President, as an official expression of English sentiment touching the election. It had an importance which dwarfed into insignificance the hot contention of the Democratic papers over two or three disputed questions from the London papers. It was equivalent to asserting that Mr. Cieveland was, as he has been regarded by Republiscus—an English candidate in his sympathies and policy—and that the apparent animosity which entered into his Retallation message was mere politics, and had no meaning. In other words, the assumed severity of the President would pass away after the election and he could be counted upon for that policy of friend-ship and free trade." The mischiel was done when Lord Sackville thus exposed the insincerity of Cleveland and expressed—as a representative of Great Britain—confidence in his friendliness. Nothing that can be done now, certainly nothing that the President can do, can diminish the injury wrought by the letter. A display of temper because the hypocrisy is found out is at once futile and puerile. From The Boston Journal.

From " The New-York Times," Aug. 22. There is this further consideration in favor of supporting the Administration on this issue. It will leave the question still open for friendly, means of settlement of some kind, while a support of the Senate's position would close all avenues of future negotiations, and bring upon the country, the disastrous consequences of retaliation, hostility, and possible war. It would put an end to all prospect of improving the commercial relations of the United States and Canada. This is one of the questions which the people should keep in mind in casting their votes next November. ARMY AND NAVY INTELLIGENCE. Washington, Nov. 1.—The resignation of Second Lieutenant Richard W. Young, 5th Artillery, has been
